Dear Dave:

We are pleased to enclose herewith the above-identified original patent together with one soft copy for your file, which issued on March 29, 2005 and expires on November 13, 2020. The Patent and Trademark Office requires maintenance fees to be paid during the third, seventh and eleventh years from the date of issuance to prevent the patent from lapsing.

We strongly recommend that goods made in accordance with this patent be marked "U.S. Patent No. 6,871,476" in order to act as statutory notice to possible infringers and to protect any rights to pre-notification damages in the event of an infringement action.

The claims and abstract have been proofread for printing errors and three errors were found. A Request for Certificate of Correction has been forwarded to the Patent and Trademark Office, and a copy for your file is enclosed herewith.

An invoice for our services in connection with this matter is also enclosed.

Best regards,

John F. Hoffman
